

Concordia Theological Seminary (CTSFW), Fort Wayne, Indiana Drug Abuse Policy—Employee, Faculty, Staff

Background

The Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 requires Concordia Theological Seminary to establish and maintain policies designed to create a drug-free workplace. This policy is to comply with these requirements and is in effect until such time as more complete policies can be developed.

The inappropriate use of controlled substances is detrimental to the Seminary's faculty, staff, students and the public they serve. CTSFW will attempt to assist an employee involved with the inappropriate use of controlled substances in obtaining rehabilitation. However, the ultimate responsibility for overcoming a dependency or inappropriate use of controlled substances is that of the employee.

Policy Objectives

1. Provide a drug-free workplace and assure a safe, healthy work environment.
2. Deter the abuse of controlled substances.
3. Reduce poor or indifferent job performance and/or rule infractions resulting from abuse or inappropriate use of a controlled substance.
4. Provide assistance toward rehabilitation for individuals employed by the Seminary who seek assistance in overcoming a dependency or inappropriate use of controlled substances.

Policy

The Seminary does not accept nor condone the inappropriate use of a controlled substance by any individual employed by the Seminary. The following statements specify the policy of the Seminary:

1. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of a controlled substance in Seminary facilities which is in violation of federal and state law is prohibited.
2. The policy is a condition of employment and violations may be cause for one or more of the following actions:
 - a. Referral to the Vice President/Chief Operating Officer and assessment to determine the appropriate treatment for rehabilitation;
 - b. Participation in a drug rehabilitation program;
 - c. Suspension from Seminary duty; and/or
 - d. Termination of employment.
3. Employees may contact or supervisors may refer employees to the Vice President/Chief Operating Officer for assistance and confidential service. Participation in a treatment program will not affect future employment or career advancement, nor will participation protect the employee from disciplinary action for continued substandard job performance or rule infractions.
4. The Vice President Chief/Operating Officer will be responsible for drug-free awareness programs to educate and inform employees and supervisors about:

- a. The dangers of drug abuse in the workplace;
 - b. The Seminary's policies pertaining to a drug-free workplace; and
 - c. The availability of assistance and confidential services offered through the Vice President/Chief Operating Officer.
5. All individuals employed by the Seminary must abide by the terms of this policy and if convicted of any criminal drug statute violation occurring in the workplace, must notify his/her department head no later than five (5) days after such conviction.
